Robby,

Yes, the US did sell the stock in late October/early November 2008, not long after it was distributed to the US Treasury. Region 2 recovered $5,779,341.58 for the Cornell-Dubilier Electronics Site.

Subject South Plainfield

Sarah - I was wondering if the US had sold the stock it received from Dana as part of the bankruptcy settlement involving inter alia the South Plainfield Site. I have a vague recollection that you said the stock had been worth about $6 million. Is that what the US sold it for? Thanks.

Best wishes on the new year.
Robby
